

WOMEN WORKERS ARRIVE IN OMAHA

Visitors Interested in Location of Manicurist and Arrangement of Rooms at Hotel.

PLAN FOR WORK ALREADY MADE

"Will you tell me where is the nearest manicurist?" asked Miss Grace Saxe of the Billy Sunday party, at the Hotel Loyd quarters, shortly after her arrival this morning.

This question directed to a visitor, who had rather expected that Miss Saxe's query would be as to the location to the nearest church, astounded the visitor.

"I think I'd rather have my trunk put in this clothes closet. The room looks better and gives me more space," continued Miss Saxe. "Oh, Miss Miller, aren't you going to put your trunk out of sight, too?"

"Oh, I don't know. I think I have enough room now," replied Miss Frances Miller, another member of the party.

"Aren't those flowers lovely?" Then Miss Saxe wandered through the remaining rooms in the corridor allotted to the Sunday party. In the suite assigned to the Rev. Billy himself there stood an immense basket of particularly luscious fruits of all kinds.

Ents Billy Sunday's Grapes. "My, isn't this lovely?" exclaimed Miss Saxe, approaching the table and—yes, she did. She helped herself to a particularly inviting grape or two!

Pretty soon the telephone began to ring, for members of the local committee had ascertained the arrival of Miss Miller, who is in charge of the business girls' work, and Miss Saxe, whose field is the Bible study classes, and the interview was continued between telephone conversations.

Miss Miller will meet with Mrs. David Cole and other members of the local women's work committee at once, although she will not begin her active work until the second week of the campaign.

Miss Saxe will meet the leaders of the prayer meeting work about Wednesday or Thursday and date her work from then. Miss Saxe has just come from Denver and says the high school girls of that city who are interested in the revival work are planning to send letters to local high school girls, interesting them in the campaign.

Miss Saxe holds Bible meetings in the tabernacle every afternoon directly following Billy Sunday's talks.

Miss Miller has been with the Sunday party over ten years and Miss Saxe for four years.

MRS. EFFIE DECKER IS HURT BY FALL ON STREET

Mrs. Effie Decker, 126 Canton street, was overcome at Sixteenth and Howard streets yesterday, presumably by the heat, and was removed to her home by Dr. C. B. Foltz, who was called to attend her. She received a cut beneath the chin upon striking the pavement and later it was reported that she was bleeding from the ears. Concussion of the brain may have resulted from the fall.

Cossacks Burn Cities and Crops as They Retreat

GENEVA, Switzerland, Wednesday, Sept. 1.—(Via Paris, Sept. 4, 11 a. m.)—(Delayed in Transmission)—The Lausanne Gazette publishes a letter from an Austrian officer fighting on the eastern front, in which he says: "The Russian retreat is a masterpiece of terrific, systematic devastation which recalls the retreat of 1812. There is an immense sea of flames behind the retreating Russian armies caused by burning houses and crops. General Mischenko is followed by well organized detachments of Cossacks whose duty it is to burn everything behind the army. "When the Honveds tried to enter Krynlow in pursuit of the Russians every street was a mine. They were unable to pass through the huge furnace and lost many precious hours in going round the town by indirect roads across fields. "When the Austro-Hungarians arrived at Vladimir-Volynskiy they found the town burning and the town of Verba also was blazing. Every village on the Volynskiy plain as far as Kovel was in flames.

The Austro-Hungarian troops had no shelter for days. "The roads are indescribably cut up and obstructed. Convoys arrived a day and a half late. It would take fifty soldiers to draw one cart out of a mud hole. "Thousands of men worked upon repairs on the railway from Sokol to Vladimir-Volynskiy, and if the road had not been repaired in time we would have met with disaster."

Woman Kidnaped in 1884 Identified by Misshaped Toe

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—By a misshaped toe and a birthmark on her body, Mrs. G. E. Korstadt has thoroughly established her identity as Annie Mooney, who was kidnaped from her parents, in this city, thirty-one years ago, when she was 5 years old, kept by Chinese for several years and rescued by police from a trunk where she was hidden. After her rescue from the Chinese, Annie was adopted by a Portuguese family. Her foster mother died when she was 14 years old and four years later Annie married Kostadt. Jena Mooney, her father, and others, offered rewards aggregating $2,000 at the time of the child's disappearance. Mooney and his wife died several years ago, but four sisters and a brother are here to welcome their long lost sister back into the family fold. Mrs. Korstadt, who has been trying to locate her family for some years, recently inserted an advertisement in a newspaper which attracted the attention of F. J. Arnold, a brother-in-law of the missing Annie Mooney. Mrs. Mary O'Neil, 70 years of age, and a life long friend of the late Mrs. Mooney, who had known Annie as a baby, notified the authorities of a peculiar birthmark on the missing girl's body and told about the misshaped toe, thereby enabling Mrs. Korstadt to establish herself as Annie Mooney.

Kopald brothers of the dead man, are in Omaha to attend the funeral.

HEROIC ENGINEER GIVEN DISMISSAL

Inquiry Board Finds Man, Who Stuck to Cab to Stop Train Brought Wreck on Self.

DISREGARDED FLAG SIGNAL

The report of the board of inquiry has taken the glamor out of the heroism of U. P. Chamberlain, the Union Pacific engineer who, while in charge of train No. 14, at 2 o'clock last Monday afternoon, at Frank, Colo., near the Nebraska state line, stuck to his machine and saved the train when at full speed he ran into a push car loaded with steel rails standing on the main line track.

In the collision Chamberlain was considerably scratched and bruised and his engine went into the ditch, he remaining with it. At the time his conduct appeared so heroic that the passengers showered praises upon him and voted him a hero.

Thursday at North Platte the board of inquiry, made up of one railroad man, a state official and a county official, heard testimony concerning the collision, reached a conclusion and reported to Union Pacific headquarters. As a result of the report, Engineer Chamberlain has been dismissed from the service of the company.

The inquiry at North Platte developed that at the time Engineer Chamberlain's train struck the pushcar that was out on the main line, he was running about fifty miles per hour. The men in charge of the pushcar had stationed a flagman 1,400 feet back. He stood beside the track, waving a red flag. Chamberlain, it was said, disregarded the flag warning and did not slacken his speed.

In explaining his disregard of the danger signal, Chamberlain asserted that he saw a party of men on the track ahead, but did not know that they had a pushcar with them. He thought they were simply standing upon the track and that they would scatter when the train approached.

Track Foreman Cost, who was in charge of the crew that had the pushcar upon the track, was also discharged, it being held that he was violating the company rules by permitting an obstruction on the track so close to the arriving time of a train.

REV. RUNCIE TO PREACH LAST SERMON IN OMAHA

ELEVEN SEEKING VACANT JUDGESHIP

W. H. Thompson of Grand Island, Said to Be Bryan Man for Federal Bench, in Omaha.

FIVE OMAHANS MENTIONED

The federal Judgeship left vacant by the death of Judge Munger is just now creating considerable excitement all over this district. Eleven applicants are already said to be in the field, and the wires between here and Washington are being kept hot with messages concerning the appointment. W. H. Thompson of Grand Island is reported to have Mr. Bryan's support, and C. J. Smyth of Omaha is supposed to be Bryan's second choice.

Congressman C. O. Lebeck and Senator Hitchcock say that they have no preferences, and a current report is that United States Attorney General Gregory may make a personal inspection of all the material before making the appointment. C. W. McCune, newly appointed collector of the port, says that he believes that the appointment will not be made because of political pull, but rather because of merit.

So far the following names have been mentioned as candidates for the position: J. W. Woodrough, Omaha; C. J. Smyth, Omaha; S. R. Rush, Omaha; A. C. Walker, Omaha; C. B. Keller, Omaha; T. J. ### AMUSEMENTS.

When we first made known the fact that we intended opening up the old American theater, after remodeling and redecorating it, as well as renaming it, everybody we told this fact to with the possible exception of one or two staunch friends, looked at us as if we were crazy, and when it came to buying equipment, if our financial standing and references hadn't been a Number One, believe us there would not have been any remodeling or renamed theater.

We're not beginners in the picture business, and, furthermore, we are not coming into Omaha blindly. For a good long time we have been watching conditions here, and became convinced that there was a wonderful opening for a high class picture theater. With this in view, we have spared no expense to make the STRAND the finest picture theater in Nebraska.

The only thing we need to put the STRAND over its tip-top and, as your confidence, and we know that after once you attend our performance, you will become one of the best boosters we have, and why not boast for us? Isn't it far better to have a live, first-class theater, giving employment to a good many local people, than a dead "lemon"? We are going to turn loose considerable pay-roll money in Omaha, besides the money we have spent for improvements, and on this basis and also on the basis of giving you the best, as well as the highest class picture show ever offered in your city, do we solicit your patronage.

Our opening attraction will be George Beban in "An A.S. Ten." This is the highest priced picture ever shown in Omaha—a fact which we stand ready to prove—and, furthermore, you will be more than delighted with a description than "The picture that makes the dimple to catch the tear"—one minute you are heartily laughing and the next a tear streaks down your cheek—that is, if you haven't a glass eye—and what's more, the sentiment is not morbid, but based on the greatest of themes—mother and father love. We have seen hundreds upon hundreds of pictures, but never a more pathetic or better acted scene than when Pietro (George Beban) comes in with a Christmas present for his little daughter Rosa, to find that she has just been killed by an automobile and her parentally sob "Please, Mr. God, don't take Rosa away; she's all I've got."

Anyway, back to matter of opening, our first performance will be Tuesday evening, September 14th, at which time we hope to have the pleasure of seeing you, and getting you started as a STRAND booster.

A "For Sale" ad will turn second-hand furniture into cash.
